CHARLES C. AND EMILINE
SESSIONS THOMAS

Charles Carter Thomas was born September 16, 1839, son of Charles Thomas and Elizabeth Carter, and died January 21, 1919.

He married Emilie Sessions on December 25, 1960, at Heber. She was the daughter of Richard and Lucretia Haws Sessions and was born May 1, 1840, at Wayne County, Illinois. She died October 6, 1906.

Emeline Sessions Thomas was one of the oldest residents of Heber, having come here with her parents in 1859. She was among the very first to settle in this peaceful little valley, nestled among the hills of the lofty Wasatch mountains. She was then a maiden of 19 years—1860

The next year, on Christmas Day (Dec. 25, 1960), she was married to Charles C. Thomas by Thomas Rasband. This was the first wedding solemnized in this county.

She was born on May 1, 1940, in Wayne County, Illinois, crossing the plains in 1850 in James Pace's company, with her mother and seven brothers and sisters. Her father and brother, John and Bradford Sessions, were members of the Mormon Battalion, which on July 20, 1846, bade farewell to their families and friends at Mount Pisgah, to make that long tramp across the western desert to California.

Mr. Thomas came to Utah on September 9, 1852, in Bryant Jolley's company. He was a member of the Nauvoo Legion, and took part in the Echo Canyon trouble and was an Indian war veteran.
